New don Mount Temple

About two months ago, with a covering letter, I sent you the enclosed, but I never got any answer. In that respect you are not alone, and I gather that lack of understanding as to what was wanted, rather than rage or despair, was the cause. So I now send the only sample I dare circulate. There are two hundred more that you can see at this office if necessary.

Please do it now; or write your own 500-word autobiography; or supply us with material in other form whence we may compile it.

Yours sincerely,

J. C. Wedgwood

My dear Mount Temple

This is pretty poor. See if you can improve it. Anyway - my affectionate regards.

Yours
Joseph Chamberlain
