Allan Heywood

I have your circular letter and have already drafted something which I will send up between now and Christmas, though I doubt if it is exactly what you want. It is of course quite impossible to answer the questions in the form in which they are put. However, you shall have my autobiography,

Yours sincerely,

Allan Heywood

Dear Wedgwood,

I now include my political autobiography which you will not like & with which you may do as you like
"You'll as under George Fardley!"

Yours very sincerely

To be on fact in the days of the Long Parliament. I am on the side of the Parliament, certainly not on that of the King. MB

Dear Wedgwood,

Thanks for your letter. I return the typescript with my additions.

I am I could hardly give you my income in 1899 - possibly between £2,000 & £3,000 but I could rather than was left out.

I am here for the winter months

Yours very truly
Mark Bright
